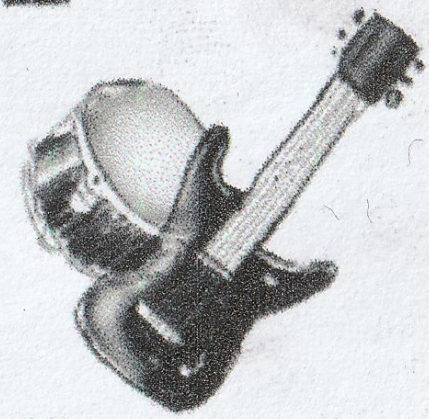
INTERVIEW

HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE YOUR MUSIC?

We would describe
our music as;
Fast hardcore with
mosh parts,
Powerviolence with a
posi twist!

ARE THERE ANY BANDS THAT INFLUENCED YOUR MUSIC?



Zahra and Matty kept bumping into eachother and saying they wanted to start a hardcore band. Matty messaged the boiz and we all clicked. It sounded like fun to play with a heavy genre we weren't all super familiar with initially, and not take ourselves seriously.

All of us have quite different influences and that works really well for new ideas.

We take influence from a lot of different genres - screamo, sludge, powerviolence, heavy hc. In terms of bands a wee list would be Ceremony, Cerce, Rorschach, Gulch, Knocked Loose, Born Against, Reversal of Man, Despise You.

DREAM BAND TO TOUR WITH?

Lightning Bolt was

Rohans choice,

Zahra said Wednesday 13

which really

annoyed Rohan and

probably the others.

FAVORITE SHOW YOU'VE PLAYED?

X The Aberdeen Tunnels gig was absolutely wild w Trauma Bonds, Bitterwood, Truth Ruiner & Fragments

X There's been too many good ones but playing at Audio Lounge with Breaks, Seer and Test of Patience was a standout. That or the Core showcase with Kute and Moni Jitchell.

X Kingston skatepark gig
was so fun and felt like
you were in a naughties music vid. That was with Doss, Flinch, Feart
and Hey Lonely Planet!

INTERVIEW

HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE YOUR MUSIC?

We're always wary
about calling it hardcore
because I think hardcore means different things to different people these days.
We tend to describe it as
"fast and loud stuff"

DREAM BAND TO TOUR WITH?

Great question.

I think it's important to bear in mind that your heroes can be arseholes, so none of them.

Any of the bands listed above really. It's probably about time we did a tour with Wreaking Joy and Inflicter, I think that would be a transcendental experience.

FAVORITE SHOW YOU'VE PLAYED?

It changes all the time. The last show we played at the Duck was fierce, but our show at Audiolounge with Wreaking Joy, Inflicter and FWYS last summer was a game changer. It was our first show back after a long break and we didn't know what to expect,

but everyone was up for a good time and it all just went off.

It was honestly nuts, people were flying all over the place and going bananas.

It was a proper life affirming moment and the first time properly getting to know the folk in Wreaking Joy and Inflicter. The start of a beautiful friendship.

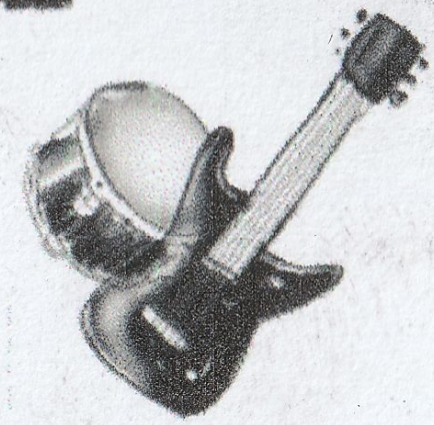
HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE YOUR MUSIC?

d:midwest scotland emo/
major key screamo

i: happy, sad, slow, fast music

r: high energy sadness

ARE THERE ANY BANDS THAT INFLUENCED YOUR MUSIC?



d: my old band had dissolved early 2019 and then ryan wrote a demo for Peachicetea in the summer. i was lucky enough to catch it first and start writing together in the second half of 2019.

i think at the time
we were both listening to lots
of snowing and algernon, as well
as lots of local stuff like shields up!,
flakes and kaddish .

some of our major influences
would have to be
algernon cadwallader,
snowing,
modern baseball
and pageninetynine.
honourable mention
- t-pain.

DREAM BAND TO TOUR WITH?
dream band to tour
with would have to be
